A new culinary hotspot in the heart of the Innsbruck
You want to organize a unique meeting and experience regional culinary delights at a special location?

Then the Genusswerk at the arches in Innsbruck is just right for you. In two connected arches you will find the stylish and inspiring venue.

Genusswerk offers a multifunctional and flexible kitchen infrastructure with state-of-the-art equipment. Whether sensory workshops, cooking workshops or gourmet events, these formats find their appropriate setting at Genusswerk. Genusswerk can accommodate up to 15 people in the kitchen area and 20 people in the neighboring seminar room. In addition to numerous kitchen appliances, there is a wall flipchart and a screen on site, so that innovative creations can be developed in the seminar room in addition to creativity at the stove.

The Genusswerk is a facility of Agrarmarketing Tirol GmbH with a special focus on regional and sustainably produced food. So if you are planning an event at Genusswerk, it is a necessity to use regional products. The Agrarmarketing Tirol GmbH team supports you in the selection process, ensuring that you are well prepared for your next team event. However, they can also organize the entire event for you with regional delight as the main focus.
