DETAILS

Meetings at an altitude of 2,020 metres above sea level

The Hotel VAYA is located in Kühtai, 40 kilometres from Innsbruck. At 2,020 metres above sea level,

Kühtai is Austria's highest ski resort away from the glaciers.

The newly renovated hotel has 88 rooms and a seminar room. This room offers space for up to 40 people and can be rented for company events and seminars. The room also creates a modern and professional environment for effective meetings. The contemporary furnishings and sufficient daylight ensure a productive atmosphere.
