MEET BACK IN TIME
The preserved Mellaunerhof is Tyrol's oldest inn. Historic vaults, cozy parlors, lovely murals and a wine cellar whose floor, according to the legend, was once a Roman road - all of that awaits you at the Mellaunerhof in Pettnau, about half an hour in the west of Innsbruck.

Renovated in 2017, the inn also offers comfortable rooms and a spacious seminar room. Located on the upper floor, the meeting room impresses with a combination of modern furnishings, glass and wooden elements, and half-timbered beams.

Let yourself be transferred into the atmosphere of the 15th century and host a wine tasting or a cozy lunch in the historic wine cellar after your meeting.
